Hold Banquet At Ebell Club Tuesday

Final plans were being completed today for the banquet and reception honoring E. M. Nealley and L. L. Beeman, retiring jaysee instructors, it was stated by Director D. K. Hammond. The affair is to be held next Tuesday in the Ebell clubhouse with activities beginning at 6:30 p. m., and the reception following at 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. Hammond said that 50 tickets at 50 cents each are available to students who wish to attend. The rest are being reserved for faculty members and alumni at $1 per plate.

GROUPS ASSIST

Assisting in arrangements are Otto Grigg, president of the Alumni association and Dick Phillips, president of the Associated Students.

Supplementing the program will be reminiscent stories recalling the days during Mr. Nealley's 21 years of service teaching psychology and philosophy and the 17 years of teaching of political science by Mr. Beeman. From 1920 to 1922 Mr. Nealley was dean of the jaysee which accommodated 152 students. It was during this time that he founded the student loan fund and cooperated with the college in holding the student social functions at his home.

Honorary Society Accepts Eight

Eight members were this week inducted into Beta Gamma, honorary jaysee organization, at a meeting held at the home of Jack Gardner.

Students elected to the society, which bases its membership upon "outstanding extra-curricular activites," are Peggy Paxton, social commissioner; Josephine Butler, Associated Women student president; Ruth Budd, scholarship and literary ability; Marian Baxter, art work.

Gil Brookings, manager of the Orpheo Troupe; Stanley Slaback, commissioner of assemblies; and Carroll Richardson and Joe Thompson, work on Del Ano.

Swanberger, Thompson Vie For Treasurer; Twist President

NEW STUDENT PREXY

BILL TWIST was named president of the Associated Students this week. He will serve in that capacity during the fall semester. He has served on the executive board as men's athletic commissioner this year.

Because neither received a majority of votes cast in Wednesday's primary, Walter Swanberger and Joe Thompson are opposing one another in finals being held today for the office of treasurer of the Associated Students. The polls will be open until 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Swanberger polled a total of 125 votes against the 78 received by his opponent. The office of treasurer was the only one for which a nominee failed to receive a majority. Roy Potter was eliminated on the first ballot when he trailed with 72 votes.

At the same time Bill Twist was elected president of the Associated Students. Twist received 209 votes to the 71 polled by his opponent, Jack Brourink.

Other election winners are Jack Lentz, who defeated Rodney Dye for the office of vice-president. A total of 161 votes were cast for Lentz. Dye received 127.

Josephine Butler won the position of secretary from her two opponents, Norma Daly and Merle Swingle, by receiving 143 votes, a majority of the student vote. Joe Allen and Al Clapper, and Bette Ann Munson and Maxine Wells, were unopposed in the race for yell and song leaders.

The three amendments on the ballot were passed without appreciable opposition. They proposed that the Associated Student ticket be changed into the form of a single card; that class officers hold their positions for one semester only; and that a regular election system be established for the Associated Students.

Plan $50 Honor Scholarship

Prospective candidates for the Alpha Gamma Sigma scholarship award will meet next Wednesday in E109 to elect the prize winner by popular vote, it was today announced by Bob Fowler, president of the honor society.

The prize, an award of $50, will be given away at graduation, Fowler said.

John Ramirez, who is now attending U.S.C. and majoring in engineering, received the scholarship award last jear.

Money for the prize was raised by the organization working in groups. Among the enterprizes which have contributed to the prize were a dance, popcorn ball and cake sales, and several trips through a local funeral home.

Attach Political Significance To Merriam-Townsend Confab

POLITICAL PORTENT?

GOV. FRANK F. MERRIAM and Dr. Francis E. Townsend are pictured above as they emerged from what is believed to have been a political conference in the Women's lounge Fiesta day. The third person could not be identified.

Possibility that the 11th annual Fiesta last Friday might leave its mark upon the California political situation in the forthcoming state elections was gaining credence here today, following disclosure of a secret conference in the Women's lounge between Dr. Francis E. Townsend and Gov. Frank F. Merriam.

Dr. Townsend, national pension plan leader, and the chief executive of the state conferred earnestly for nearly a half hour shortly before 5 p. m. Friday. Dr. Townsend met Governor Merriam shortly after the close of the afternoon Fiesta program.

REFUSE COMMENT

What transpired at the conference was not revealed and reporters were unable to obtain a statement from either Dr. Townsend or Governor Merriam as to whether any politically-significant moves had been made.

'A COMEDY OF ERRORS'

(An Editorial)

One of the biggest farces in this college today is Beta Gamma.

Time was when this "honorary extra-curricular" society really elected to its membership only those students who had unselfishly rendered service to the college.

But now, this organization has fallen in this respect until it is a purely personal "like and dislike" club. It is the privilege of the members to elect whom they please. However, grounds for black-balling has come to be based in certain instances, on whether a member takes a fancy to a prospect, regardless of the service he may have rendered.

And too, just because in the eyes of certain prejudiced members a candidate gives indications of rendering service, he may be named to the organization.

In spite of the fact that the by-laws or constitution desire that one-third be freshmen and two-thirds be sophomores, is it justifiable to assume that one-third simply must

TALK O'THE TOWN

A Preview of Fashions

By RUTH LIGGETT

BASK IN THE CALIFORNIA SUN at your favorite beach in a swim suit that is attractive as well as comfortable. At Hart's 306 North Sycamore street, the suit that is most popular is the Gantner. These meticulously tailored suits are original in every line. From this particular brand you may choose a knit velvet lastex, satin lastex, puffed satin lastex and celanese and satin crepe in just any number of colors and designs. These suits are wool lined and jiffy drying. Therefore when emerging from a swim you never have that cold and clammy feeling. The smart girl is going to wear a Gantner to the beach this summer.

WHETHER IT'S AT THE MOUNTAINS OR THE BEACH you will want to have a slack suit that is causal and clever. A large but exclusive in design, array of such outfits, have just arrived at Scouller's, 312 North Sycamore street. One set in particular was a new version of outstanding beach apparel. The blouse is made with tailored collar, short puffed sleeve effect, several small tucks on each side of the front opening, amber buttons down the front and a box pleat in back. It may be worn either inside or out. I would say this is quite a few virtuous points for one blouse. The slacks are designed with two front zippers, high waist line, and small covered buttons that fasten the top of the placket. This set is made of Banker's cloth. At this same store, you will find the most chic peasant dresses to be shown any where. They are the new Dirndl's. That is the Bavarian word for "little lady." They are made of Koolnub material which is washable and preshrunk. The nicest part about them, though, is that they are so reasonable.

Don't forget that Scouller's carry a complete line of evening dresses in the latest styles.

THEY PLACE AT YOUR FEET the town's newest, smartest and largest array of white shoes. Where? Why at Almquist's, 218 West Fourth Street, of course. They have the latest air-cooled styles as advetrised in the Good Housekeeping. From white sandals with open toes and heels to the traditional white pump they carry them all. Let them fill your graduation needs in regard to shoes.

Plan For Jaysee Band Formation

Aim To Cooperate With Rooters

Plans for the organization of a junior college band to be used at football games and other athletic contests were revealed today by Fred Beecher and Bob Baines, jaysee students originating the proposal. Full support by the junior college has been promised by Director D. K. Hammond, it was announced.

Need for an organized band to serve as a central rooting section and to act with the song and yell leaders prompted the movement, it was stated.

AID SCHOOL SPIRIT

"A high school or WPA band playing at intervals characterized the football games last year," Baines said, "An organized jaysee band would assure more perfect co-ordination, and would greatly increase college spirit."

Organized as a two-unit course under the direction of Alan A. Revill, music instructor, members would rehearse on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays as a regular class, "but would be an outstanding class because it would be devoting itself to the spirit of the college," Baines pointed out.

MANY MAY JOIN

Many junior college music students have already signified their willingness to join the organization, Baines revealed. The possibility was also voiced that a jaysee dance orchestra might be formed by members of the band.

Both Baines and Beecher have had previous experience in conducting bands. Beecher headed a dance band in Idaho, and Baines conducted a band at Orange High school before entering jaysee.

Sigma Chapter, Beta Phi Gamma

Eight Inducted Into Society

Eight jaysee journalism students were formally initiaed as charter members Monday night into Sigma Chapter, Beta Phi Gamma, at a banquet held at Daniger's. Beta Phi Gamma is a national honorary co-educational journalism fraternity, and is affiliated with Alpha Phi Gamma, four-year college fraternity.

Those inducted were Vic Rowland, Delpha Wollert, Ed Velarde, Oscar Lieffers, Bob Swanson, Gloria Kirchner, Bob Prescott and Jack Gardner. John H. McCoy, journalism director, was made an honorary member of Beta Phi Gamma and also of Alpha Phi Gamma. Mason Yould, editor of The Register and C. F. (Skinny) Skirvin, Journal columnist, were named honorary members. Rowland is president of Sigma chapter and Miss Wollert is secretary-treasurer.

Representatives from several Southern California chapters were present. Mrs. Glenn B. Merryfield of San Bernardino, executive secretary of the organization, presented the chapter to President Rowland. Installation was conducted.

Director D. K. Hammond gave a short address of welcome. Rodney Dye played several numbers on his accordion to entertain the guests.

Merriam-Townsend Meet On Campus

the lounge are presumably the only persons aware that the two nationally known personalities had conferred. A third person who was not identified participated intermittently in the discussion.

PARDONS PRISONER

Governor Merriam had appeared as the principal speaker at the Fiesta Day program. Shortly before appearing here, he telephoned a pardon from Long Beach to Sacramento for a man about to be executed. He telephoned the pardon only a few minutes before the execution was to have taken place.

Dr. Townsend appeared first in Orange where he planned to meet the Governor. But after much telephoning they managed to meet here in the Women's lounge.

STUDENTS PRESENT

Although the substance of the conference remains a secret, the Governor and Dr. Townsend had little privacy during their talk. Cosumed students wandered noisily through the lounge, a few peeked in the door, and several stopped and stared at the window outside.

The two principals were apparently not disturbed.

Junior Lions Lead In Fiesta Sales

The Junior Lions club booth at Friday's Fiesta led all other stands in sales for the day, netting nearly $10. The booth sold tamales.

Second place in money earned went to the Spinsters who sold ice cream. The women's organization netted nearly as much as Junior Lions, profiting from the warmth of Fiesta afternoon, it was announced.

All-College Banquet Scheduled For June 16 At Country Club

Climaxing the social affairs of the present college year, the annual all-college banquet scheduled for June 16 at the Santa Ana Country club will be the last social event this semester, according to Peggy Paxton, social commissioner, who was today completing final plans for the annual event.

A semi-formal dinner-dance, the banquet begins at 6:30 p. m. and is not a date affair, Miss Paxton stated. Corsages are not in order. Harry Wham and his orchestra have been secured.

Approximately 200 students are expected to attend and since tickets in past years have all been sold early and many people turned away Miss Paxton warns that those who plan to attend, purchase their tickets early.

The price to Associated Students is 75 cents; to others, $1.25.

Committees and committeemen in charge of the banquet include Josephine Butler, decorations; La Vonne Frandson, program; Bill Semnacher, orchestra; and Donn Hart, advertising.

Appoint Harlow As Board Member

be elected merely because they are freshmen and the same for sophomores because the quota should be filled? It is also our understanding that Beta Gamma is reserved for those students who have accomplished service for the college . . . that it is in recognition of service rendered . . . and NOT with the EXPECTATION of doing this prescribed service.

Do not misunderstand us. There are many worthy student members. There are also many who are worthy who are not members.

What we are concerned with is the method of electing them. Many worthy students are kept out because of personal prejudice. Yet, a seemingly greater number are elected because they have friends in the club. Our word for this need not necessarily be taken. Much of this information has been given us by MEMBERS of that organization who have become disgusted with its functioning.

We know of a student who was named to membership when he was a freshman—apparently with the expectation that he would do some service, and NOT in recognition of service done. As it turned out, he didn't any more give service than a score of other students on the campus.

We also know of a case where a social commissioner had been refused membership on purely personal grounds. She had worked hard for the success of all social events under her supervision. And it was during her administration that some of the most outstanding social successes of the college were achieved. Yet she was not rewarded with membership.

To our knowledge no men's athletic managers have ever been named to the society. Many managers for years past have rendered unselfishly of their time and energies to make it easier for the athletes and to assist in whatever way possible . . . spending many hours which could be used in other ways . . . yet receiving no recognition of any sort. Just ask Coach Bill Cook.

According to some of our informants, it has come to be a case of having a champion in the club in order to gain recognition. Yet even this may do no good if two members are in cahoots and oppose the prospects—for any reason whatsoever (and this does not have to be made known).

We have it on good authority that when Beta Gamma was in its infancy, no one could be elected except on the accomplishment of some outstanding service to the jaysee.

It will be a great day for Beta Gamma and for the college when these practices are eliminated. We know this will be difficult under the present set-up. It will take time and fair deliberation and above all BACKBONE to accomplish this end.—The Editor.

La Fiesta Superba!

Congratulations are now in order to those responsible for the super-stupendous colossal-magnificent Eleventh annual Fiesta.

The efficient management of Student Chairman Jerry Roland and his Fiesta committee, and of Calvin C. Flint is a credit to the college.—The Editor.

● Monday Marks 70th Anniversary of Event

CELEBRATE MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial Day will be commemorated throughout the United States Monday to receive the memories of "those who died in conflict."

The celebration was originally named Decoration Day in 1868 by Gen. J. A. Logan, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, as "a day for every post to hold suitable exercises and decorate the graves of their dead comrades."

DECORATE GRAVES

Eventually, this custom has been extended until now on Memorial Day, the graves of all soldiers, public officials, friends, and relatives are decorated.

On this day, the most famous of all Memorial Day speeches, The Gettysburg Address, delivered by Abraham Lincoln in 1864 to consecrate the men who fought and died in the Civil War, will be revied as a highlight in our American parade of democracy.

HOLD PARADES

Most of the plans for celebrations for the day are now in the hands of The American Legion. Usually, there are parades, music, and flag displays. Then, there too is the poppy sale featured by the organization to support the hospitals wherein are kept the disabled War Veterans.

In Arlington Cemetery, the tomb of the unknown soldier will be decorated with all the pomp and ceremony which attend this anvisitation—this event proclaims America's feeling for the men who died for her causes.

PUBLIC'S OPINION

SANTA ANA, May 24. (To the Editor of El Don)—May I take this means of telling you how excellent your Eleventh annual Fiesta program at jaysee was.

As a regular daily visitor to jaysee I am in constant touch with the college and I can truthfully say that last Friday was, from all appearances, the biggest and best day I have seen about the campus in quite some time.

The event was a credit to both the junior college and the city of Santa Ana. Congratulations to all who had a hand in making it the definite success it was.

FLIES TO COLOMBIA

Looking forward to her proposed summer return to Vermont, her native state, Christine Burbank, jaysee freshman, today also looked backward—to an airplane journey made a year ago to Colombia, South America.

"It wasn't my first air trip," Miss Burbank said, "but it was by far my most interesting and exciting one."

FLY LAND PLANE

She took the airplane at Boston, flew down the coast to Miami, and from there over the Caribbean sea, "the most thrilling part of the trip, because the plane was not a seaplane."

Colombia left the impression of "a little South American country with a lot of lazy natives a few white men, and an enormous amount of mosquitos."

LEARNS SPANISH

Despite lazy natives and hordes of mosquitos, Miss Burbank managed to pick up a smattering of Spanish, and to visit her uncle, who was constructing a portion of the international highway being built to span North and South America from Alaska to Cape Horn.

"Cock-fighting is the past, present and future fad in Colombia," Miss Burbank said. "Wherever there are two natives, there is usually a cockfight, and for this reason, Colombians make poor laborers.

LIKES TRAVEL

"The Colombia trip gave me a taste of the thing I would like to do more of—travelling," she added.—Carroll Richardson
